Please Note: During the week we will be taking pictures of Vacation Bible School activities. These pictures will be shown during each morning assembly and on the night of the program. By enrolling your child you are permitting us to take pictures that will be displayed throughout the week. Also, we encourage great fun at VBS but please remind your children to be respectful of the church, leaders, and friends and to play safe. We are not responsible for accidents. Please consult one of the directors if you have questions.
